Dear Mrs. Everett:

Thank you so much for your letter. It means very much to us to receive such warm comments from unknown friends. And your letter also shows you have an appreciation of the tremendous amount of time and effort we have invested in WHITEWASH.

Unitl we decided to publish the book ourselves and finally got it on the market, we didn*t realize how very many fine, dedicated people there are in this country - dedicated to the ideal of the best is what we would like for our country. We have heard from a great many people, and their encouragement and support is indeed welcome. It takes away much of the feeling of aloneness.

We are looking to the day when the public will demand the reopening of this case and a full and complete investigation of all happenings surrounding it. Only when the case is completely and finally solved can we feel that the office of the Presidency and the country as well are safe and free. To the best of our ability, we are working to that end.

Once again let me tell you how grateful we are for your taking the time to write us so considerately.

All the best to you.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
